G. Other detailed information regarding the examination will be given in an Information Handout which will be made available for the candidates to download along with the call letter for examination from the Bank's Website.

E. PENALTY FOR WRONG ANSWERS :

There will be penalty for wrong answers marked in the Objective Tests. For each question for which a wrong answer has been given by the candidate one fourth or 0.25 of the marks assigned to that question will be deducted as penalty to arrive at corrected score. If a question is left blank, i.e., no answer is marked by the candidate, there will be no penalty for that question.

F. CUT-OFF SCORE

- (i) If the test is held in more than one session, the scores across various sessions will be equated to adjust for slight differences in difficulty level of different test batteries used across sessions. More than one sessions are required if the nodes capacity is less or some technical disruption takes place at any center or for any candidate.
- (ii) Each candidate will have to secure a minimum score in each of the tests as well as on the total score to be called for interview. The cut-off points to qualify in each of the tests will be decided based on the group norms. Mere passing in individual tests may not be sufficient as candidates should also score sufficiently high on Total in order of merit to be called for interview. A candidate should qualify both in the Online Test and Interview high on merit, for being considered for appointment in the vacancies notified.

G. QUALIFYING IN THE ONLINE TEST :

Candidates will have to pass in each of the objective test and also qualify in the descriptive test. The passing marks in each of the tests will be decided by the Bank on the basis of the performance of all the competing candidates taken together in each test to a minimum required level. Candidates are also required to score minimum marks on aggregate in respect of objective tests, to be considered for interview. Minimum marks on aggregate will be decided by the Bank. There is provision for relaxation in marks for SC/ST/BC candidates.

Marks obtained in the Online test will be reckoned for shortlisting for interview. Accordingly, candidates will be called for interview. Depending upon the number of vacancies, only those candidates who rank sufficiently high in the Online objective test will be called for the interview in the ratio of 1:5. Mere eligibility/pass in the test shall not vest any right for being called for interview. The list of candidates shortlisted for interview, will be made available on Bank's website.

Final selection will be on the basis of the ranking accorded, after adding the marks obtained in the Online objective test and interview.

The Scores of Online objective test will be obtained by adopting the following procedure:

- (i) Number of questions answered correctly by a candidate in each objective test is considered for arriving at the Corrected Score after applying penalty for wrong answers.
- (ii) The Corrected Scores so obtained by a candidate are made equivalent to take care of the minor difference in difficulty level, if any, in each of the objective tests held in different sessions to arrive at the Equated Scores*.
*Scores obtained by candidates on any test are equated to the base form by considering the distribution of scores of all the forms.
- (iii) Test-wise scores and scores on total is reported with decimal points upto two digits.

Note : Cutoffs shall be applied as follows :

- (i) Qualifying in the descriptive test ;
